

BE PART OF THE STORY...

OF WEST LONDON

Aged 16 - 25? Want to try something new? Learn new skills? Meet new people?

Get involved with the Story of QPR project, and gain hands on experience in journalism, design and digital publishing. Learn from industry professionals and be part of creating something that lasts the test of time.

We are creating an online magazine which will capture the heritage of QPR Football Club and the local community. We need volunteer researchers, writers, journalists, designers, artists and poets to bring these stories to life.

WHEN: 26th - 29th MAY (Daytime) WHERE: LOFTUS ROAD STADIUM

You'll have exclusive access to interview footage, archive images and objects to inspire you

You'll receive support from professionals who will help you to learn as you go

Your work will be included in a prestigious digital magazine which will be promoted throughout West London and via the QPR FC website
